

Shonny DeBouse-Young

Shonny DeBouse-Young is a professional makeup artist and stylist with extensive experience in commercial print, video and television. Shonny also has her B.A. with a major in business management and minor in marketing. This gives her an extra edge in the makeup business. She has been painting and creating makeup faces all her life and is passionate about bringing out every clients inner beauty. Her experience includes Prophetic Encounters Axxess Media, Conversations with Hill Harper, Agape Live, Dorinda Clark- Cole, Spensha Baker, Debra Winans, and Kurt Karr, Conversations with Kirk Franklin, Dr. Renee Hornbuckle, and Pastor Riva Tims. She is a native of Fort Worth but now resides in Dallas, where she has built a client base that includes Equanimity Magazine, The Design Factory, Jesse Hornbuckle Photography, Self Esteem Elevated, K. Burton Photography, Freda Bosh (Mother of NBA All Star Chris Bosh), & award winning gospel artist Angelo & Veronica just to name a few. Shonny is also State of Texas HUB certified and is a certified Super Bowl XLV Emerging Business.

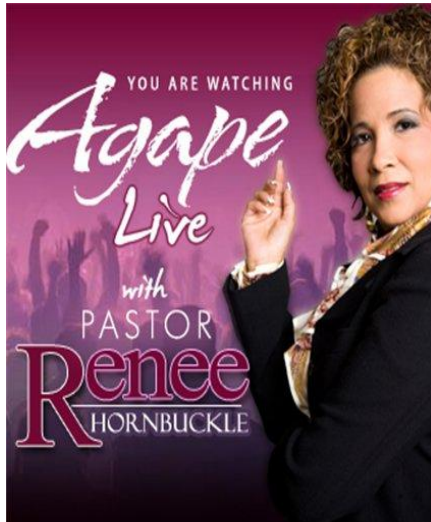

She is constantly refining her makeup and styling skills with classes. Shonny enjoys learning and teaching others about makeup and styling skills, and is always on the lookout for ways in which she can bring both the latest looks and styles, as well as classic standards of beauty, to her diverse clientele. She has studied M.A.C., Color Me Beautiful, and Danessa Myricks to further diversify herself and hone her makeup skills. Some skills in the early years were learned and taught to her by seasoned makeup artist that were willing to help the new kid on the block out, a sometimes difficult route taken by many well-known make-up artists even today; it proved absolutely crucial to Shonny's development as a great artist. In the past fifteen years she had worked on thousands of skin tones, textures and types. She has done makeup application for numerous men and women, from every kind of attitude, ethnicity, and background. What this gave Shonny was more than experience; it gave her an appreciation of different kinds and levels of beauty.

Today you can find Shonny mixing up new makeup creations in her studio, sweating it out on location or putting the final touches on a nervous bride-to-be. When she's not obsessing over lash curls or eyebrow hairs, she attends church and meditates to keep her mind and creative antics fresh.
